*Theatre So Close
It Touches You!*

September 11 – October 10
THE ODD COUPLE

by Neil Simon

ONE APARTMENT, TWO ROOMMATES. ONE ADVENTURE, ONE THOUSAND LAUGHS!

In Neil Simon's classic comedy Felix has just broken up with his wife. With nowhere else to go, he is urged by his good friend, Oscar, to move in with him. Oscar is a incurable slob and Felix is a neurotic control freak. Spend a hysterical evening in the theatre with Oscar, Felix and the rest of Neil Simon's wacky characters.

October 23 – November 21
DRIVING MISS DAISY

by Alfred Uhry

THIS PULITZER PRIZE WINNING PLAY WILL HAVE AUDIENCES IN LOVE WITH MISS DAISY AND HER CHAUFFER.

An aging Daisy Werthan becomes unable to drive, prompting her son to hire a black chauffer for her. The story of their journey from mistrust and suspicion to deep friendship over 25 years is funny, touching and oh, so human.

December 4 – January 2

THE LADIES MAN by George Feydeau

Freely translated and adapted from
Tailleur pour Dames by Charles Morey

REGIONAL PREMIERE

THIS FRENCH FARCE IS JOYOUSLY RACY AND INFECTIOUSLY CHARMING.

It's Paris- a century before Viagra- a recently married physician Hercule Molineux is finding it impossible to perform his manly duties with his beautiful new bride, Yvonne. To avoid confessing this embarrassing fact, the doctor lies - and from one single untruth a cascade of bigger ones tumble. A hilariously zany ride of mistaken identities, near misses and happy endings.

January 15 – February 13
CHEMICAL IMBALANCE: A JEKYLL AND HYDE STORY

by Lauren Wilson

A WALK ON THE WILD SIDE.

This ingenious comedy of horrors is based on Robert Louis Stevenson's Dr. Jekyll and Mr. Hyde. A fast paced romp of the man experimenting with good and evil. Wilson's play is a mixture of Oscar Wilde and Mary Poppins with a touch of the Grand Guignol. The humor is nonstop in this remarkable entertaining night at the theatre.

ONE NIGHT ONLY!

November 22
SCRIBES

by Dan Wolpe

LEARNING LIFE'S LESSONS ABOUT ART, LOVE AND FAMILY.

Harold Franklin Horn has spent his entire life dreaming of becoming a great writer. His inspiration, world famous author Ronald Becker, becomes his mentor. Through their relationship, both men learn a lesson about art, love and family.

Free staged reading. Discussion to follow.

February 26 – March 27
MIRACLE WORKER

by William Gibson

WINNER OF SIX TONY AWARDS INCLUDING "BEST PLAY."

The unforgettable telling of Annie Sullivan's heroic struggle to release the blind, deaf and mute Helen Keller from the terrifying prison of eternal darkness and silence. Helen Keller's inspirational story of courage and hope is one of the most moving American classic dramas ever to be performed on stage.

April 9 – May 8
HARVEY

by Mary Chase

A PULITZER PRIZE-WINNING COMEDY.

A magical story of affable Elwood P. Dowd and his 6 1/2 foot invisible rabbit named Harvey. This play has become one of the most successful and popular plays that America has fallen in love with.

May 21 – June 26

KING O' THE MOON

(Over the Tavern, Part II) by Tom Dudzick

"THIS IS A PLAY THAT FEELS LIKE AN ALL-AMERICAN MUSICAL COMEDY WITHOUT THE MUSIC" CHICAGO TIMES

It's the irreverent 60s...1969 to be exact. And in this hilarious and moving sequel to Over the Tavern the absolute certainties of the 50s are swept away in a tidal wave of revolution, rebellion and protest. Apollo 11 is about to land on the moon ....while the Pazinski family is just hoping to land on their feet.
